THE MARK CLAYTON FOUNDATION GIVES BACK TO WELL DESERVING FAMILIES FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Baltimore Raven hopes that Christmas dinner and shopping spree make this holiday special

Dallas, TX and Oklahoma City, OK. (December 12, 2007) – The Mark Clayton Foundation is taking a moment to lend a helping hand to two families this holiday season.

The Talley Family of Dallas, TX and the Mayberry Family of Oklahoma City will enjoy this year's Christmas dinner, which is being sponsored by Clayton, a wide receiver for the Baltimore Ravens. Along with the groceries, each family will receive a $1000 gift card for a shopping spree from Target.

Although Clayton is away, still in season, he has chosen to share by providing the items necessary to prepare a Christmas feast comprised of his favorite foods. These include turkey, ham, glory greens, sweet potatoes, macaroni & cheese, cornbread, German chocolate cake, strawberry cake, lemon cake, marshmallows, sweet tea, and cranberry sauce. In giving these items, Mark Clayton aims to reach out and bless the lives of these mothers and their young children.

JacQuetta Clayton will be presenting these gifts on behalf of her son to the Mayberry family on December 13 and the Tally family on December 20, 2007.

About The Mark Clayton Foundation

The Mark Clayton Foundation is dedicated to serving the community as we aim to fulfill our mission: to support the children and families living in the foster care system by improving their overall quality of life. We will accomplish our mission by providing opportunities for youth leadership development, financial assistance, and academic enrichment. Ultimately, we seek to enhance the social well-being of the young people most plagued by economic misfortune and tragic life circumstances.
